Hi Jennifer,

Attached is the info on the above-referenced reimbursement packet. As you may remember, they submitted an e copy of the request in January and I asked for a hard copy. I didn't track it then, and now, having received the hard copy will do so. Should I track it (117) with the January date rec'd or new. I'm thinking Jan, but don't know if that messes anything up. I'll review if as soon as I can now.

Let me know what you think so I can have it tracked in BRRTs.

Thanks.
