

DATE: January 17, 2002

FILE REF: FID #246004330

TO: file

FROM: John Feeney

SUBJECT: Cook response to my letter asking for additional investigation

Although not ideal, groundwater-sampling results from the perimeter wells can be considered in lieu of additional soil investigation (after a close look at the site investigation data).

They had already done groundwater flow maps etc. for the different aquifers.

They still need to submit performance reports, preferably on a quarterly basis.