Fincantieri Marinette Group
1600 Ely Street
Marinette, WI 54143

The responsible party is still unknown and no visible sheen was on the water.
This is the door that the locking mechanism leaked on. I sent the picture to show you the pockets in the door where the oil is believed to have pooled in. There was visible oil in the door upon investigation, but no sheen on the water.

Thanks,
