Beggs confirmed with Lynn Bradley via a phone call on 1/18/2019 that both her and Mr. Javeed called the County and verified that Mr. Javeed is the owner of both parcels, so the County GIS information of different ownership for one of the parcels was incorrect.

Hi Lynn,

I haven't issued it yet because I am still waiting for a response back from you and the owner on the parcel issues. It appears this site is two different parcels with two different owners. Did you resolve this? See attached email from December 2018.

Thanks,

Tauren,

I have not received the letter of No Action Required for the above mentioned project. Could I get an estimated timeframe? I also wanted to make sure you were not missing anything from me. Thank you!
