Wis. Admin. Code ch. NR 712 establishes the minimum personnel qualifications for conducting environmental response actions in Wisconsin. More specifically, it specifies the standards: (1) for sampling, field work and development of plans; (2) the personnel requirements for report submittal; and (3) specifications for the certification of submittals. Please be aware that non-compliance issues associated with Wis. Admin. Code ch. NR 712 will likely delay any needed or requested department approvals, including case closure decisions.
