APM Checklist	A checklist for APM of Lake Delton.		1/1/2017
Aquatic Macrophyte Survey	A technical survey of aquatic plant density and distribution is essential for understanding the lake ecosystem due to the major ecological role they play and the sensitivity to water quality parameters that plants require (Dennison et al, 1993). The quantitative survey performed in 2014 will provide some useful information toward future management of Lake Delton, including fish habitat improvement, sensitive species protection, aquatic plant management, and water resource regulation.
