If this waterbody did not receive a check in each of the 4 categories, but based on your professional judgement and overriding environmental concerns, you still believe that this should be an Outstanding or Exceptional Resource Water, explain why.

2/15/89 - The Red Cedar River is a regionally significant stretch of water. Designation of the lower reach (#2) will achieve consistency with the Western District recommendation for Dunn County and the designation of the upper reach (#1) will recognize an equally significant stretch of water. -DJR
