

KNOWN CRITICAL SPECIES HABITAT SITES IN THE SAUK AND SUCKER CREEK WATERSHED: 2010

Reference Number on Map	Area Name	Location	Ownership	Size (acres)	Description and Comments
62	Port Washington Clay Banks	T10N, R22E Sections 3, 10 Town of Grafton	Private	35	Semi-wooded upland clay banks above Lake Michigan provide critical bird species habitat
64	Port Washington Beach Dunes	T11N, R22E Section 1 Town of Port Washington	Private	29	A stretch of beach and dunes containing several critical plant species restricted in Wisconsin to the Lake Michigan shore.
65	Sauk Creek Nature Preserve	T11N, R22E Section 29 Town of Port Washington	Ozaukee Washington Land Trust	13	Woodland bordering Sauk Creek containing a population of the State-designated threatened forked aster (Aster furcatus)
67	Harrington Beach Old Fields	T12N, R22E Section 24 Town of Belgium	Department of Natural Resources	395	Large artificial grassland area that provides nesting habitat for grassland breeding birds

Source: SEWRPC.